

CELEBRATING PRESS FREEDOM: AN AFRICAN PERSPECTIVE

Please join Denver's Africa Agenda and invited guests for a special celebration of World Press Freedom Day 2017. In honor of the many men and women who provide vital news and information to the African people and continent, we invite you to take a moment to look back over the past 30 years in terms of the African movement towards freedom of expression, independent media, and civil society.

We will screen the award winning film CRY FREEDOM and then have a panel discussion and Q&A with some of Denver's leading experts on African media and society.
